Louise Oliver

(she / her)

CREATIVE PRODUCER
WRITER + FILMMAKER + ACTOR

ABOUT ME

I'm a creative producer with over 15 years professional experience working in the arts. My specialisms are theatre, festivals, the Edinburgh Fringe, and film. I make work that is provocative, feminist, rebellious and fun. I am very prone to asking the question "but what if this was a musical?" I am passionate about social equality and the capacity for art to facilitate change. If this sounds like the right vibe for you, then feel free to get in touch about what I can offer your project or organisation.
